JAF Group: David Brenner becomes new country general manager of JAF in Austria

Stockerau. David Brenner (52) is taking over the general management functions of J. u. A. Frischeis (JAF) in Austria with effect from February 2024. The responsibilities which Brenner is assuming at J. u. A. Frischeis GmbH (Austria) were previously those of general manager Werner Stix, who continues to oversee the general management of the international JAF Group alongside Miroslav Malženický and Wilfrid Fabjani.

By attracting Brenner, the JAF Group has brought on board an experienced expert with in-depth know-how and industry knowledge. This graduate of politics, journalism and legal sciences most recently spent ten years in the position of general manager at the international wood-based manufacturer Kronospan Deutschland GmbH. From 2007 to 2013, he previously served as deputy provincial governor and provincial councillor for finances in the province of Salzburg.

Quote from David Brenner

“I am delighted to be returning to Austria and becoming part of the JAF Group. In the past, I have already had the chance to get to know JAF as a dependable and determined business partner and look forward to continuing to shape the future of timber trading with my new team”, says a highly motivated Brenner shortly before taking on his new role as country manager at JAF in Austria.

About J. u. A. Frischeis
